Selectmen Protest Study

The Andover Board of Selectmen Monday night indicated their intent to ask the other communities in the Merrimack Valley Planning Commission to reject the Wastewater Management Study being prepared by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The board questioned the procedures being used by the Corps to make the study, which is aimed basically at improving the Merrimack to make it almost pure from its beginnings in New Hampshire, to Newburyport.

In other regional action, the selectmen asked for legal direction on the possibility of selling water to the Town of Tewksbury, and said that they were "not going to join" a Regional Transit Authority, at least until more details are available.

Selectman Alan French objected to the "impracticality" of the Corps study. "Does it make sense," he asked, "to spend millions to make the

Lane Case Set For Monday

The "secret meeting case," in which School Committeeman William Lane is claiming that his colleagues on the board held illegal, secret sessions, is now slated for Monday, after a new ruling by a Suffolk Superior Court judge.

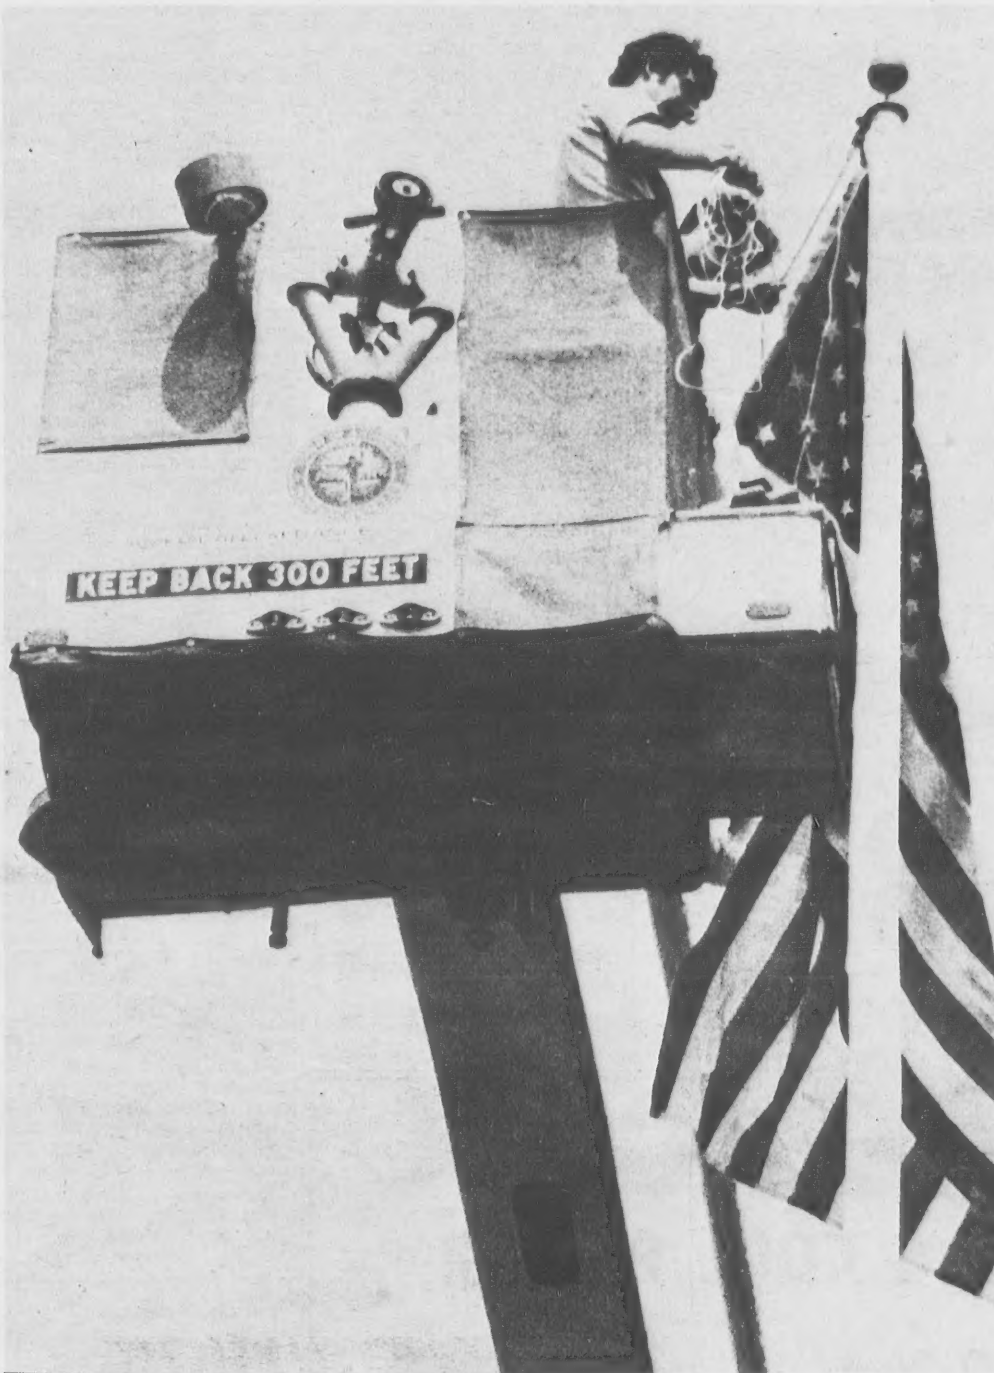

The hearing was postponed again last Tuesday in Lawrence Superior Court by court master Salvatore J. Basile, to yesterday. But Friday, Superior Court Judge Joseph Ford ruled that a matter involving public officials should be heard by a judge, not a court master, because of its overriding public concern.

Lane had been handed a censure in May by the other committeemen - Chairman Francis Griggs, George Olesen, John Lyons and John Wragg - for revealing action discussed in an executive session. The committee had questioned the reappointment of certain personnel and at the following meeting it demoted Edward Regan from assistant superintendent and William Becker from English RAISING THE FLAG ON THE FOURTH OF JULY was no easy matter in Andover this year. Congressman Paul W. Cronin brought a flag which had been flown over the Capitol for the occasion but found no rope on the pole at the bandstand at the Park. So, the Congressman summoned the aid of the town's fire department snorkel and ascended to the heights to place the rope and Old Glory in its prominence for Andover's observance of the 198th anniversary of the founding of the country.

Examiners' Board To Screen New School Administrators

The Andover School Committee reversed itself last week, and voted to grant a maternity leave of absence to Mrs. Susan B. McClellan, an East Jr. High math teacher without tenure.

The action came after Town Counsel had advised that a possibility of discrimination charges existed.

Continuing in its policy-making mood, the committee also established a board of examiners to select administrative personnel, and okayed a few other items in the updating of its policy book.

The Committee will meet again Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m., at West Elementary School.

Mrs. McClellan's request for a leave had been denied last month, after Committeeman George Olesen expressed concern that granting leave to a non-tenured teacher could be considered a precedent that could open a Pandora's box in the future.

Mrs. McClellan had taught here two years, which would count toward the three necessary for tenure, upon her return from leave.

An attempt by Committeeman William Lane to include two representatives from the parents' group most directly affected by an appointment in the board of examiners, failed, and the board will now consist of one representative of the superintendent, two representatives from the professional teaching staff and two from the administrators.

The board would screen applicants for interviews by the full school committee and the superintendent, who would make his recommendation to the com-

Cuba St. Seeks Curb On Cars

"We solved the problems on Clark Road and we're going to solve the problems on Cuba Street," Selectman Chairman Milton Greenberg told some two dozen residents of the latter who turned out Monday night to express concern over speeding cars and trucks.

Greenberg ordered a complete traffic count and radar study to be made by the police department. The results will be turned back to the selectmen for action.

The residents, led by Mrs. Linda Isaacs, of 7 Cuba St., had presented a petition to have the street dead end at Red Spring Road during the spring, summer and fall - opening it in the winter when driving is more dangerous.

In other action the selectmen again postponed decision on the

Group Seeks Emphasis On "3-R's"

A group of Andover parents, seeking greater emphasis on the "3 R's" and a "more structured classroom environment," plans to propose a pilot program that will do just that, to the Andover School Committee in the near future.

Arthur Ahearn, chairman of the group, "Academics Plus," said this week that since 1967, educational philosophy in Andover has been aimed at development of the "whole child," and that in the past five years, "it seems to many of us that our schools have been more concerned with pleasing the students and making them worldly-wise, than with making them learned."

"As more walls have given way to open spaces, as self-paced student contracts replaced teacher-direction, and as Andover's position in nationwide, standardized tests has plummeted to all-time lows, we have decided that a down-to-earth Three R program is a project whose time has come."

Ahearn said that enrollment in the pilot program would be voluntary, for those parents "who opt for a more structured, academically attuned environment for their children."

Academic Plus's proposal, he went on, would also include

Bus Routes Published

As a public service, the TOWNSMAN, is publishing this week the Andover school bus routes for the coming school year.

Last year there was some controversy after the routes were published with some changes, just prior to the opening of school, as had been the custom for years.

The routes published today are basically the same as last year. However, some have been altered slightly to accommodate expansion or contraction of the student population.

The routes will be published again prior to the beginning of the school year with approximate time and driver assignment.

Electricity Price Hike Approved

Massachusetts Electric Company has received approval to charge its customers an additional 2.64 mills per kilowatt-hour effective June 3, 1974.

This charge, which is subject to refund, will begin appearing on bills received in the second week of July and will amount to a $1.06 per month increase for an average residential customer using 400 kilowatt-hours of electricity.

Massachusetts Electric petitioned the DPU for this increase in order to offset its portion of the increased cost of purchasing wholesale power from New England Power Company (NEPCO). NEPCO was granted a $39.7 million rate increase by the Federal Power Commission on May 8, 1974, and began billing Massachusetts Electric on May 15, 1974. Massachusetts Electric will be required to absorb $3.5 million of added expense in 1974, as it will not bill its customers retroactively for the period from May 15 to July 3, 1974.

Commenting on the DPU's order, William J. Cadigan, president of Massachusetts Electric, said, "We regret any price increases while in this inflationary period, however, this additional charge is essential to cover a major cost increase to the company and, therefore, allows us to continue providing reliable service to our customers."

Massachusetts Electric Company and New England Power Company are wholly-owned subsidiaries of New England Electric System.

Receive Grants For Projects

Students in the 21 area school systems served by the Merrimack Education Center in Chelmsford will benefit from two grants totaling $163,150 which were awarded to MEC on July 1. An ESEA Title III grant of $80,000 will enable MEC to set up an occupational competency model project this fall for high school students enrolled in the general (non-college) curriculum. A grant of $83,150 from the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare will be used by MEC to train classroom teachers to work with handicapped students.

The Title III grant was one of nine made throughout the Commonwealth by the Board of Education. Occupational competence, a major program priority of Commissioner Gregory R. Anrig, is geared towards the improvement of career choices for general students who make up about 22 per cent of the high school population in the state. According to the Commissioner, the projects selected will upgrade and expand the occupational offerings available in comprehensive high schools.

The MEC project is a regional one involving 21 school systems in the Merrimack Valley cooperating to provide inservice training for teachers. This will involve courses given at the schools as well as consultation with local businesses, technical schools, colleges and chambers of commerce. Leslie Bernal, Associate Director of MEC will serve as the Director of this project.

With the $83,150 grant from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare MEC will set up training programs in special education for classroom teachers utilizing the special education staff of Fitchburg State College.

Under a new law (known as Chapter 766) which goes into effect this fall emphasis will be placed on meeting the educational needs of handicapped students in the regular school classroom, rather than segregating them from the rest of the students. This applies to students with learning problems as well as those with physical and/or mental handicaps.

According to Dr. Richard J. Lavin, Director of MEC, this law will present new challenges to classroom teachers, and the newly funded program is designed to help them meet these challenges. Dr. Lavin will serve as director of the new project which will begin this fall.

The Merrimack Education Center was established in 1968 by a group of school systems in the Merrimack Valley as a cooperative effort to provide teacher training programs, educational research information and a variety of other services to the member school districts. Currently MEC serves the towns of Andover, Bedford, Billerica, Carlisle, Chelmsford, Lawrence, Dunstable, Groton, Littleton, Lunenburg, Methuen, North Andover, Tewksbury, Tyngsboro, Westford, Wilmington, Woburn plus the North Middlesex Regional School District, Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical School, Greater Lowell Vocational Technical School, Nashoba Valley Tech, and Shawsheen Valley Vocational Technical School.

V. Rev. John R. Aherne O.S.A.

Re-Elected President Of College

The Trustees of Merrimack College have re-elected Very Rev. John R. Aherne, O.S.A. to a second term as president of the North Andover college, it was announced today by Board Chairman, Rev. Edward Daley, O.S.A.

Citing Fr. Aherne for outstanding leadership, Fr. Daley called particular attention to the significant role of Merrimack College in community affairs throughout Fr. Aherne's administration.

"Fr. Aherne has brought public understanding to the presidency of the College," the board chairman said. "His achievements benefit the community as well as Merrimack College."

Since his promotion to the presidency of Merrimack College in 1968, Fr. Aherne has stressed community involvement in college programs and activities. In recent years under Fr. Aherne's leadership, Merrimack has developed the extremely popular Celebrity Series as well as cultural and lecture series serving the general public. The S. Peter Volpe Physical Education Center, completed in November, 1972, is considered a major achievement for both the College and the community. For the College, the facility provides numerous physical education opportunities for its students. It is also ranked as a superior facility for intercollegiate competition and for community programs that accommodate thousands of area youngsters for learning experiences in basketball and hockey.

His most recent achievement as president is the academic reorganization of Merrimack into Divisions of the Humanities, Social Sciences, Business Administration, Science and Engineering, and Continuing Education. Faculty and administration spent over a year working out the new plan with Fr. Aherne under the direction of Rev. John A. Coughlan, O.S.A., Vice-President for Academic Affairs. The academic reorganization was instituted to create smaller, more manageable administrative and instructional units in order to gain a more equitable balance of emphasis among faculty, administration, and students. The reorganization was also designed to enhance the personalized relationship of the College by bringing the Academic Deans into closer contact with faculty and students.

Additional campus improvements under Fr. Aherne include the 1973 construction of the Louis H. Hamel Infirmary, a much needed health care facility for students; the construction of fourteen town house dormitories in 1969; and the renovations of the Gildea Student Union and classroom buildings on the North Andover campus.

During his administration, Fr. Aherne dedicated the McQuade Library in honor of Merrimack's founder and first president, V. Rev. Vincent A. McQuade, O.S.A., and during his first year in office, fund raising activities marked the successful completion of the Library Fund Drive.

In 1968, Fr. Aherne also organized special college committees to research Merrimack's activities and established a ten year master plan for the college's development. The much heralded Merrimack College Economic Impact Study was completed in 1970 and college fund raising activities under Fr. Aherne have accelerated from a rate of charitable income of $74,239.02 in 1968 to $291,266.60 at the close of fiscal 1973.

A native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Fr. Aherne entered the Augustinian Order in 1929 and was ordained to the priesthood in 1938. He was awarded the A.B. degree in Philosophy from Villanova University in 1935 and received the M.A. degree in English from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. in 1939.

Widely recognized in educational circles, Fr. Aherne was a professor at Villanova Preparatory School in Ojai, California from 1939 to 1942. At that time, he was named Vice-Principal of St. Augustine's High School in San Diego and in 1963 was promoted to Principal.

Fr. Aherne was named Academic Vice-President at Merrimack College in July, 1962, which position he held until his appointment as President in July, 1968.

LAST ONE IN . . . didn't know what he was missing, Monday, as dozens of Andover youngsters escaped the 90-degree heat in the relative cool of Pomp's Pond. The pond is open for recreational swimming from 1 p.m. weekdays, 11 a.m. weekends.

Cuba St.

liquor license of the Andover Beverage Mart, heard a progress report on the Doyle Land acquisition and Neighborhood Youth Corps, and approved a handful of appointments.

Mrs. Isaacs said she began pestering Chief of Police David Nicoll "about four months ago" to have something done about traffic on Cuba Street, which runs .2 mile between Shawheen Road and Red Spring Road.

She said he had agreed with her that speed signs wouldn't be effective, and that while he suggested the possibility of making the street one-way, decided that the large hill would make traveling difficult in the winter. Furthermore, it would require fire trucks to take "the long way around" in some instances, creating a further hazard.

Mrs. Isaacs said she felt most people on the street were "minorly hysterical" to get some action from the town, and that many had "literally grabbed" the petition out of her hand.

Her husband Richard said that many trucks use the street, having gotten lost getting off I-93, and that Cuba Street is the back route into the high school. Many teenage drivers consider the road, with its hill and dips, a challenge, he said.

Joseph Sweeney, 19 Cuba St., said that Cuba Street probably had the highest density of children of any street in town, and that the problem is not with trucks so much, as with cars and motorcycles.

"I'm trying to figure out how we've escaped a fatality all these years," he added, then suggested a partial barrier across the street, with a sign that said "For residents only."

Isaacs said there are 36 youngsters in 18 houses -- eight with no driveways so cars park in the street, presenting further danger.

"We will accept for the record that Cuba Street has the highest density," said Greenberg, as he ordered the study.

The Andover Beverage Mart was closed in May by the board, acting in its alcoholic beverage control capacity, because of alleged sales to minors. A prospective buyer is now interested in a transfer of the license, if it isn't revoked by the board.

Selectman Alan French said that "mostly," what the client would be buying would be a piece of paper, since the license is attached to the premises, and the Mart must move.

The license could, however, be transferred to a new location if one is found. Two sites are apparently being considered.

Assistant Town Manager Sheldon Cohen said that a recommendation for a planning firm, to come up with possible uses of the Doyle Land, would be forthcoming "in the very near future," possibly at the July 22 meeting.

He also reported that 37 Andover high school students, 19 female and 18 male, are currently working for the Neighborhood Youth Corps, assigned to Town departments and other agencies.

The selectmen also formally ratified the appointment of James A. Murphy of Salem as special counsel for the school committee; and approved the appointments of John DiIorio and George Ziadi to the Development and Industrial Commission.

Mrs. Carol A. Down and Thomas Comparato were named to new, two-year terms on the Recreation/Community School Committee and Richard Marciano and Don P. Scott were reappointed to the committee, for three-year terms.

Selectmen

Merrimack River drinkable, when it could be a fine recreational area for much less?"

The selectmen have asked to be on the agenda at the August 1 meeting of the MVPC, and indicated they meanwhile will contact the individual commissioners to express concern about the way the study is being conducted.

Assistant Town Manager Sheldon Cohen added this week that Corps' estimates for implementing their plan run about $2.5 million for Andover, above and beyond what the town is already paying to the Greater Lawrence Sanitary District in its effort to clean up the Merrimack.

In addition to questioning figures on which its estimates are based, he said the selectmen have also had difficulty in getting information from the Corps.

"We get a runaround," Cohen said, "in what is supposed to be an open planning process."

The planning commission will eventually vote, he said, on whether or not to accept the Corps plan as THE master plan for water resources, as required by new federal legislation.

The idea of selling water to Tewksbury arose after a Water Study Committee there approached this town.

The selectmen said Monday they want further detail, particularly on the legalities of the matter, before having further communication with Tewksbury.

Greenberg said it seemed to be the consensus of the board that Andover would not join the Regional Transit Authority until they know what its implications are for the town.

"We don't need a $100,000 study," French said, "just a 10-page report, a brief assessment on why it's necessary."

Rock Concert Is Tomorrow

The Recreation/Community Schools Department is sponsoring the first rock concert of the 1974 season, tomorrow night.

Sledge-hamma, a Frank Borsa Associates rock group from Norwood, will perform behind the High School from 7-10 p.m.

Future rock concerts will be held at the same time, same location, July 26, Aug. 9 and Aug. 23.

Admission to all concerts is free.

Andover

Summ

The 1974 Recreation Community Schools Program began Monday with a full staff located at the five Andover playgrounds, including Shawheen, Doherty, Sanborn and Elementary Schools and Vale Playground. Various sports activities and special events and courses are offered through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A structured tennis program is being offered to each playground one morning per week. The programs are based from their respective playground to the high school where all lessons are given and are returned by bus to the playground area.

Friday is a free day. Tennis instructors will be available to assist anyone who needs an informal basis. This excellent opportunity for youngsters to catch a few hours of tennis lessons and practice skills learned during the week. Those interested in tennis must provide their own transportation to and from the high school.

Ballardvale

Things are really happening at Ballardvale playground. In the first week, we are settling down to our schedule of cuts and safety conscious instruction. Bowen took us all on a tour of the fire station. Thurston Ballardvale Bullies, (a softball team), hosts and our cheerleaders. Veronica have made a cheer. "Get off today! We'll show you play and you'll wish you came! Hurray!"

Meanwhile the girls are firming up the flab with Kim Meyers. "Slip anyone? This Friday promises to be loads of dogs and hamburgers welcome as well as a kazoo band will begin this week and looking hope to travel to Ward day hike around the Bo loop. Why did the girl's refrigerator? Give up? General Electric!"

Shawheen

Shawheen playground for the first time this year. Here, at Shawheen school the other playgrounds, supervised activities from 1 p.m., plus various courses.

Last week Robbie Wilkins came in second. Ross, third. Softball and games begin soon at other playground. Shawheen needs players; everyone can play. A game is now being held and other sports. Come in a game just for fun.

Other activities include and crafts, picnics and games for children of For example, we have scavenger hunt, bike and an obstacle course. We had a good time making

Summer Playground Notes

The 1974 Recreation/Community Schools Playground Program began Monday, July 1, with a full staff located at each of the five Andover playground areas, including Shawsheen, Doherty, Sanborn and West Elementary Schools and Ballardvale Playground. games and sports activities as well as special events and enrichment courses are offered Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

A structured tennis program is being offered to each playground one morning per week. Students are bused from their respective playground to the high school, where all lessons are given, and are returned by bus to their playground area.

Friday is a free day. Tennis instructors will be available to assist anyone who needs help on an informal basis. This is an excellent opportunity for youngsters to catch a few extra hours of tennis lessons and practice skills learned during the week. Those interested in Friday tennis must provide their own transportation to and from the high school.

Ballardvale

Things are really happening at Ballardvale playground. After a hectic first week, we are finally settling down to our usual schedule of cuts and bruises. Safety conscious instructor Kris Bowen took us all on a tour of the fire station. Thursday the Ballardvale Bullies, (our boys softball team), hosts Doherty and our cheerleaders Tina and Veronica have made a special cheer. "Get off the bus today/We'll show you how we play/and you'll wish you never came! Hurray!"

Meanwhile the girls team is firming up the flab with coach Kim Meyers. "Slimnastics anyone? This Friday's picnic promises to be loads of fun, hot dogs and hamburgers are welcome as well as rolls. Our kazoo band will begin practice this week and looking ahead we hope to travel to Ward Hill for a day hike around the Boston Hill loop. Why did the girl salute the refrigerator? Give up? (It was General Electric).

Shawsheen

Shawsheen playground is open for the first time this summer. Here, at Shawsheen school, as at the other playgrounds, we have supervised activities from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., plus various special courses.

Last week Robbie Wilkins won our checker tournament. Tommy Wilkins came in second and Sean Ross, third. Softball and kickball games begin soon against the other playground teams. Shawsheen needs players for all teams; everyone can play. Practice is now being held for these and other sports. Come and join in a game just for fun.

Other activities include arts and crafts, picnics and lots of games for children of all ages. For example, we have had a scavenger hunt, bike races and an obstacle course. We have also had a good time making and painting plaster moulds, making tissue flowers and marshmallow men and we have done paper folding (origami). We have just started: there's lots more to come!

Sanborn

Fun, games and lots of people, that's what Sanborn playground has been full of this past week. Supervisors Terry Healy, Greg Brown and Kim McCabe are happy to have the extra hands of the weekly rotating aids and volunteer Susan Ziegenbein to help with the increasing population.

Familiar faces of many people were welcomed. The Coves, the Kennedys, the Bogusz twins, Mrs. Beverly McCabe and her boys are frequenting Sanborn again this summer along with many new smiling faces. Quiz question of the week: guess what Pam Kennedy did?

Team sports are being organized, new activities are getting underway and don't forget the famous fun of the Friday picnics and water balloon fights. It looks like the summer is off to a pretty good start.

West

West Playground is in full swing with various activities. This year we added a garden, planting several vegetables and flowers, hopefully at the end of the summer we may be able to do some flower arranging.

Everybody seemed to enjoy the great ice cream we made, with a fine group effort. Tuesday, was a hot day, so instead of looking at a hot oven, we made non-cook peanut butter cookies and were they good!

The highlight of the week was the bike hike to Sid White's.

Designer Attends Meeting

Frank Niziak, NSID, an Andover designer and member of the board of directors, National Society of Interior Designers, attended the national board meeting in Denver, Colo., July 3.

The meeting was held in conjunction with the first joint national convention of the National Society of Interior Designers (NSID) and the American Institute of Interior Designers (A.I.D.), two leading organizations of professional interior designers. A vote for consolidation of the two groups took place on the final day of the convention, and was approved. The new society, which will be known as the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID), will be the largest organization of its kind in the world.

Niziak will represent all the New England states on the new society's first national board of directors. He resides with his wife Charlene, and family at 49 Birch Road, Andover.

Tsongas Visits Andover

Congressional Candidate Paul Tsongas (D-Lowell) was in Andover this past Friday and Saturday, part of his 150-mile walk through every city and town in the Fifth District.

The present Middlesex County Commissioner entered Andover, Friday, on North Main St. from Lawrence. He continued with local supporters from home to home, then into Andover Center. On Saturday, Tsongas and supporters resumed their walk down Main St. to South Main St., and on to the North Reading border.

As the Democratic Congressional candidate began the last leg of his Fifth District route, he said he noticed "two issues continually cropping up." Tsongas explaining, "First, people want to know why no one seems to be doing anything about the high cost of living. Second, and not unrelated is the feeling that there have got to be some basic changes in Washington." Tsongas stating, "People believe the country's adrift and that the government just isn't functioning in their interest."

Tsongas undertook the "on-foot" loop of the Fifth District to listen to resident's views, and answer their questions.

The walk is expected to conclude in Lexington sometime next week.

Coppola Puts Limit On Spending

Philip Collopa, candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Representative, has announced a $2,000 limit on spending for his campaign.

"It's ludicrous to think that a State Representative candidate is allowed to spend $10,000 for a campaign. I can't help but think that organizations that raise this kind of money are going to depend heavily on huge public relations and advertising campaigns. I've said all along that politics at this level ought to be brought back to the people. We should get out and personally meet and talk with them."

Coppola also is setting a contribution ceiling of $25 per person. "In this way, the person that can only afford one or five dollars can feel as though he or she is doing as much as the person who can afford more, but is limited."

"We have a new contribution reporting law that went into effect in January of this year. It's a step in the right direction but it doesn't go far enough. I favor a statewide reevaluation of campaign spending procedures."

Two Named To Maritime Academy

Two Andover youths have been appointed for admission as cadets in the class of 1978 at the Massachusetts Maritime Academy, Buzzards Bay, it has been announced by Rear Admiral Lee Harrington, Academy president.

The Academy is fully accredited for a four-year program and awards bachelor of science degrees. Graduates also receive appointments as ensigns in the Naval Reserve and are licensed in their specific capacity by the U.S. Coast Guard. The Academy has a new $11 million complex on a 55-acre campus bordering the Cape Cod canal.

The youths are Glen A. Pulsford of Kathleen Drive, and Frank J. Polizotti of Greenwood Road.

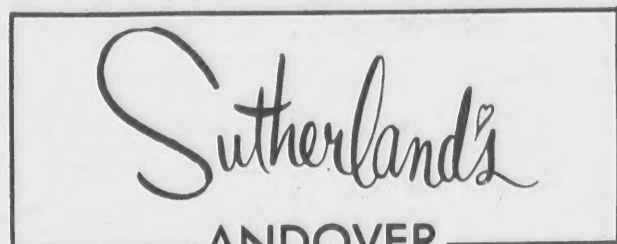

Pulsford was a member of the track and cross-country teams at Andover High. He also was a member of the weight-lifting team, the Photo Club and Outing Club. He is a Boy Scout with life rank, a patrol leader and scout master. He is president of the Pilgrim Fellowship and served as a volunteer for a service project for the Scouts and for food drives for Gleam.

Polizotti was a member of the baseball, track and soccer teams at Andover High. He also was a home room representative and a member of the gymnastic team. He has served as second mate aboard a fishing boat out of Salisbury for two years. His chief hobbies are skiing and scuba diving.

Lynn Woods, with 1200 acres, is one of the largest natural parks to be found within city limits anywhere. It has a three-mile scenic drive, five lakes and ponds, historic sites, picnic and cookout areas, rose garden, large playground and an 18-hole public golf course.

Mets Sweep For Title

By Rick Harrison

The powerful Andover National Mets left no doubt in anyone's mind who the Little League Town Champions are for 1974, belting the American Red Sox 20-3 and 15-2 to sweep their best-of-three series for overall circuit supremacy.

The Mets' easy romp marked the fourth straight time, and ninth time in 11 years, that the National League champs have prevailed in the Town Championship.

The double victory also enabled the Mets to finish the season with a flashy 16-1 overall record, the lone blemish being a 4-2 late-season loss to the Pirates.

The Red Sox, on the other hand, had a seven-game win streak snapped and closed with a 12-5 ledger.

Feeney Stars

Pete Feeney keyed the Mets' opening 20-3 conquest at South School, pitching and batting the hard-hitting champs to the victory.

On the mound Pete combined with 10-year-old Tom Fabiani to hurl a five-hitter and fan six.

At the plate he went 4-for-5, including a long three-run homer, and he scored three runs.

Ken Southworth, who lashed seven hits in the brief two-game series, also turned in a 4-for-5 effort with three doubles and a single.

Doug Wilson and Mike Flynn both drilled two-run singles, while Sean Burt clubbed a two-bagger and Steve Mosher had another perfect bunt single to aid the Mets' onslaught.

The champs were also extra-sharp defensively, prompting Manager Dave Mosher to call it "our best all-around game of the season."

Chris O'Hara made two sparkling diving catches in centerfield, while catcher Charlie Wiseman held on to three foul-tip third strikes, and first baseman Pete Gravellese combined with third sacker Ken Southworth on a beautifully-executed force play.

The Mets wrapped this one up in the top of the fourth inning, exploding for 12 runs.

The Red Sox used three pitchers in a vain attempt to stem the tide. Starter Mike Anderson took the loss, and he was later relieved by Todd Zimmerman and Richie Sambuco.

Eddie Powers, Don Bliss and Anderson hammered doubles for the Sox, while shortstop Mark Rogers played well defensively.

Hot Finish

The amazing Mets pounded out 15 hits enroute to the 15-2 clincher, which was played in 96-degree heat at the Playstead on July 4.

After the Red Sox took a 1-0 edge in the top of the first, the Mets struck for 13 runs in the next three stanzas to secure the win.

Charlie Wiseman pitched the six-inning route for the Mets, scattering seven hits while whiffing six and walking two.

Pete Gravellese, who was doing the catching, had a perfect 3-for-3 afternoon at the plate with a two-run homer to left, a triple and a single.

He also scored an acrobatic run, leaping over Sox' catcher Billy Hall and scrambling to the plate before the tag could be applied.

Ken Southworth continued to drill the baseball at a red-hot clip, going 3-for-4 to complete a 7-for-9 series.

Steve Mosher slammed a two-run triple and Charlie Wiseman helped himself by going 2-for-3.

The Mets again played near flawless ball in the field, with shortstop Steve Mosher and second baseman Mike Flynn combining to handle 10 chances without an error.

Previously undefeated Sox' chucker Eddie Powers (6-0) went the route on the hill.

Robbie Wilkins belted a 230-foot homerun that cleared two fences in leftfield for the losers' second run in the fourth frame, while Billy Hall laced two solid hits and Powers singled for the Sox.

The Mets' triumph also made it a clean sweep for the National League in playoffs, as the NL Giants also whipped the AL Yankees in the second-place playoff and the NL Pirates won the Minor League Town Championship.

Both the Mets and Red Sox were awarded individual trophies by League President Dick Neal following the second game.

All that remains of the 1974 Little League season now is the All-Star games, with the Andover American 'Stars facing Lawrence Prospect Hill on July 15 and the Andover National 'Stars meeting the winner of South Lawrence East vs. South Lawrence West on July 19.

Topped Division

The Andover American Major Little League Red Sox won the American League Championship recently with a 12-3 record.

The team, managed by Frank Monette and coached by Werner Anderson, George Hetley and Gil Nicholas, finished up their regular season with a seven-game winning streak, including an 11-7 victory over the second-place Yankees and a 6-5 victory over the third-place White Sox, down the stretch.

The Red Sox had the top pitcher in the league, 11-year-old Eddie Powers, who led with a 6-0 pitching record. Mike Anderson followed with a 4-1 mark and Richard Sambuco was 2-0.

The big hitters for the Red Sox were Robbie Wilkins, whose .590 batting averaged topped the league, and who had a 10-consecutive-hit streak going at one time. He also reached base 17 out of 18 times at bat during his hot streak, and had four home runs. Bill Hall was second on the team in hitting at a .395 clip, and led both leagues in home runs with five clouts.

Don Bliss, at first base, was next in hitting with a .333 average. Mike Anderson hit .306 playing third base and Eddie Powers hit .288 playing second base. John Cox finished strong in his last five games, hitting at a .545 clip to finish at .265.

This was Coach Monette's sixth American League championship. The Red Sox led the American League in offense and defense.

Town Tennis Play Starts Monday

By Howard Epstein

The Greater Lawrence Town Team Tennis league is a reality, and is working well even without some of the best players in the Greater Lawrence area. Oh, there are some good players in the league, and they seem to enjoy the league very much and want to help in setting it up. But the more players, the better the league will be. The lack of players in Andover and North Andover in Division "A" is the greatest. There is also a big need for women players in the league.

The league is divided into three divisions. "A" is for ages 19 and up; "BN," 15 through 18; and "C," 10 to 14. There are three divisions in each town, and two teams per division per town. So there are six teams per town in four towns (Lawrence, Andover, North Andover and Methuen), for a league total of 24.

The scoring in Town Team Tennis is the same as the Boston Lobsters of the World Team Tennis league. The first one to reach four points wins a game; at three points all, the receiver gets the choice of side. If the score is tied at six games all, you play a best of nine tie-breaker. One set wins the match. The matches that will be played are womens singles, mens singles, womens doubles, mens doubles, and mixed doubles.

There are an equal number of men and women on each team. The minimum number of players on a team is eight; four men and four women. The maximum is 14, seven men, seven women.

For more information call Lawrence Recreation Department, Lawrence City Hall, the Town Team Tennis headquarters.

The league starts on Monday, so call today for this great opportunity.

Collins Heads Officials

Dick Collins, Andover track coach, will head officials at the Greater Lawrence Jaycees' "Good Sport Competition" to be held at the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School, Saturday.

The nine-event program will begin at 8:30 a.m. at the River St. school.

Anyone interested in entering the "Good Sport Competition" may register at the Voke School on Saturday morning. The competition will essentially seek out the best man and woman amateur athlete in the Greater Lawrence area. Following the local competition July 13 will be a regional competition.

Dodgers Edge Sox For Title

By Rick Harrison

Despite the fact that losing pitcher Mitch Rousseau and Bob Kramer combined to hurl a no-hitter, the National League Dodgers edged the American League Red Sox 4-2 in a single-game showdown for the Andover Senior Little League Town Championship July 4 at the Playstead Field.

Ironically, the Red Sox had won their divisional title with an 11-3 record during the regular season while the Dodgers had closed at 7-7 to top their circuit, and in three previous meetings
the Sox had won handily each time.

A combination of errors and four bases-loaded walks did the damage for the Dodgers, who apitalized on Rousseau's wildness to build up a 4-0 lead.

The Dodgers received a steady mound performance from complete-game winner Dave Rindone, who used an effective curveball as his out pitch. Dave scattered eight Sox' safeties and struck out eight batters.

Rousseau paced the losers' attack with a double and single, while Bruce Lenos drilled a pair of hits and Randy Hayman had a timely single.

Will Wright, a promising 13-year-old ballplayer, hammered an RBI double that set his final seasonal batting average at an even .500 (10-for-20). Willie also led the Sox in RBIs during the year, quite an accomplishment for a 13 playing against 14 and 15-year-old competition.

The game, which was viewed in 90-degree temperatures by a large crowd, ended in exciting fashion with a clutch defensive play by the Dodgers.

With two outs in the seventh,
Bruce Lenos was perched on second base with a potential third run for the Red Sox.

A single was ripped sharply to centerfield, and Lenos was waved home as Dodgers' outfielder Shawn Reming picked up the ball.

Reming gunned a perfect throw to catcher Dan Morreo, who slapped the tag on the sliding Lenos to end both the Sox' threat and the game.

Police Club Undefeated

By Rick Harrison

Mike DiTroia and Bob Hannon combined for a no-hitter, and the Andover Police team remained undefeated (3-0) with a pair of wins, as action continued in the Andover Recreation / Community School Summer Baseball League last week at the high school field.

DiTroia and Hannon pooled talents for their mound gem as Andover High blanked the Andover Alumni, 4-0.

The Police nine topped the Andover Independents, 9-5, and bounced back the following day to dump Andover High, 5-2.

The other contest saw the Independents edge the Alumni, 5-3.

No-Hitter

Mike DiTroia, who hasn't allowed a hit or run in his first two league appearances, didn't walk a batter and fanned three during his stint. Hannon whiffed five and issued four free passes.

Andover High struck for two runs in the first and two more in the third against losing Alumni hurler Kevin Lynch, who surrendered just three hits. He struck out 11 but gave up seven walks.

John Ford and Steve Corcoran drove in the first two runs for AHS, and a bases-loaded walk to Ed Caselden in the third accounted for an insurance run.

Power, Pitching

The Police crew had power from Jeff Towne and pitching from Keith Verrette and Steve Tisbert enroute to its 9-5 triumph over the Independents.

Towne lined a tremendous opposite-field homerun to knock Independents' starting hurler

Laslo Kun out of the box in the third.

Police starter Keith Verrette allowed just two hits, but was plagued by wildness and needed relief help from eventual winner Steve Tisbert.

Verrette helped himself with a pair of hits and two third-inning RBIs, and the eventual winning run came in the fifth when Mark Morreo singled home John Brennan.

Bob Dooley lashed a two-run single in the fourth for the Independents, whose only other hit was a leadoff single by Jim Cleary in the first inning.

Kun gave up four hits, walked two and fanned four before Ken Szostak took over in the third. He surrendered two hits, whiffed three and hit one batter.

Striking Early

The Independents came back the following evening to defeat the Alumni, 5-3, scoring four of their runs in a pivotal first stanza.

Bob Autieri collected the pitching victory with a three-hitter, whiffing six and walking four.

The losing chucker was lefty
Joe Conlon, who settled down after the first to fire an eight-hitter. He issued five walks and struck out four.

Laslo Kun drilled an RBI single in the first and a long triple in the third inning for the Independents.
Ken Szostak belted a two-run double in the first, and rescued Kun from third with a sacrifice fly two innings later.

Autieri helped his own cause with a run-scoring single in the opening canto, and Bob Dooley added two safeties to the attack.

The Alumni got one run back in the first on Bob Hughes' sacrifice, and made it close in the fourth when Tom Barenboim slammed an RBI double and Dave Sweetser ripped a run-scoring single.

The Alumni also pulled off a triple play in the fifth. Ed Murphy screamed a line shot to first baseman Bill VanSchalkwyk who caught the ball, stepped on first and threw to Tom Barenboim at second to complete the defensive rarity.

Walks Will Kill You

Four walks led to four Police runs as they dumped Andover High, 5-2, behind the combined five-hit pitching of started Gerry Skinder and reliever Steve Tisbert.

Losing hurler Dave Mosher permitted just three hits, but six free passes kept him in hot water.

Bob Gildea walked in the first inning for the Police, stole second base and then scored on a two-out error.

Jeff Towne walked in the second and scored with two outs when he tried to steal third and the catcher's throw sailed into leftfield.

With two out in the fifth John Brennan walked, stole second, took third on a poor throw and scored on Steve Tisbert's single.

In the sixth Biff Moriarty walked, Towne singled and Joe Tisbert spiked a two-run, pinch-hit single.

The High School notched both its runs in the fourth. Mosher singled and scored when Gary Obermeier was safe on an error.
Obermeier came home moments later on Steve Corcoran's single.

Tourney No-Hitter By Twomey

Lefthander Brian Twomey of the Andover Babe Ruth baseball team fired a no-hitter last Sunday, as the Greater Lawrence Babe Ruth League All-Stars pounded the Lowell Stars 11-1 in the District 15 Tournament championship game at Mark Devlin Field.

Twomey's outstanding effort came on the heels of a two-hitter by Chuck Prescott of South Lawrence East, which enabled Greager Lawrence to edge Burlington American 3-2 in the District 15 semifinal clash.

Brian withstood a shaky first inning, during which he walked four Lowell batters to account for their only run, and then settled down to hurl brilliant baseball the rest of the way.

home four runs.

Andover's other All-Star representative, Thom Lawler, won himself the starting berth at first base and made several fine defensive plays in the first two tournament games.

By virtue of its winning the District 15 title for the fifth straight year, Greater Lawrence now advances to the Sectional portion of the Tournament where the four immediate District champs will collide in double-elimination play.

Sectional action is due to begin this weekend, with the time and site of the first two games still in doubt at presstime.

Meanwhile, Andover moves into the second half of its regular-season play this week with three games all scheduled after TOWNSMAN presstime.

The locals met North Lawrence on Tuesday at Hayden-Schofield Playstead, hosted Tower Hill last night and are listed to face red-hot North Andover at the Playstead Field tonight.

After that first stanza only three Lowell players reached base, two on walks and one when he was hit by a Twomey pitch, as Brian finished with six walks and eight strikeouts.

The Andover southpaw fanned three in a row and five of six over one stretch, and retired the last eight batters in succession.

Only one ball was hit out of the infield against Twomey, that being a long fly to centerfielder Scott Stoodley by Lowell's Neil Murphy in the first stanza.

While Twomey was controlling the visitors' bats, Greater Lawrence was pounding out 15 safeties against three Lowell hurlers.

Twomey helped himself with an RBI double and single in four trips, while Methuen's John Solomon lashed three hits and Mike Heaphey of North Andover slammed two hits and drove It's only natural. Because, after all, our 2700 employees are just as concerned about rising electric bills as our 635,000 customers. They pay the same electric rate and fuel adjustment charge you do.

That's why we've compiled a list of the 10 questions they are asked most frequently, together with brief answers to give you a better idea of where things stand.

If you have a question of your own that is not answered here, ask a Massachusetts Electric employee for an answer. Call the office nearest you or, if you prefer, simply mail us the attached coupon.

Q. Why has my electric bill gone up in recent months?

A. The average residential electric bill for a customer using 500 kilowatt hours a month went from $17.92 in May 1973 to $23.73 in May 1974. Approximately $1.02 of this increase reflects basic rate increases reviewed and approved by the Department of Public Utilities. The remaining $4.79 of the increase in the average residential bill is the result of higher fuel adjustment charges during the same period. This is due to the astronomical rise in the cost of residual fuel oil used to generate nearly 70% of our electricity.

Q. Why doesn't the electric company pay for these fuel cost increases instead of passing them along to their customers?

A. Since September 1973, residual fuel oil costs have gone up from $3.44 to over $11.00 a barrel or a total of more than $220,000,000 annually for our System.

This is more than 6 times our annual earnings and, without the fuel adjustment charge, your electric company would be unable to pay its bills and remain in business more than 60 days.

Q. Who gets the fuel adjustment charge on my electric bill?

A. 100% of the fuel adjustment charge is paid directly to our fuel suppliers and your electric company doesn't make a penny's worth of profit on it.

Q. If fuel costs go down, will my electric bill go down, too?

A. Yes. The fuel adjustment charge protects both you and your electric company against rapid fuel cost changes. When fuel costs go down, your fuel adjustment charge will automatically go down, too.

Q. Are fuel costs higher here in New England than in other parts of the country?

A. Yes. Fuel costs in New England have risen 139% since the energy crises began; this is about 3 times the national average. These energy costs are for oil, coal, and gas used to generate electricity and not other energy costs. Legislation is needed to equalize New England's energy costs. We have asked our Congressmen for help in putting us on an equal price footing with other areas.

Q. What else is the electric company doing to reduce fuel costs?

A. All that we can. By next Fall, three-quarters of our System's fossil-fuel generating facilities will be modified to enable us to burn coal as well as oil. Given the go-ahead, we can begin to burn the lowest price coal and oil available and still meet primary air quality standards. Amendments to the Clean Air Act will enable us to use coal on a reasonable basis. They will also clear the way for long term variances which will permit us to buy coal at more favorable prices.

Q. What can I do to help lower my electric bill?

A. Your support of legislation which will enable us to achieve a reasonable balance between air quality improvements, economic impact, and a reliable supply of energy is essential in bringing fuel costs down. Given approval to burn coal for 5 years and to arrange five-year coal contracts, our system can save customers about $50 million per year. And, at current prices, we could save about $4 million a month through the reasonable use of higher sulfur fuel oil.

Q. Would nuclear energy reduce the high cost of electricity?

A. Yes. Though nuclear energy is now used to generate only about 20% of our electricity, this capacity saved New England customers between $40 and $70 million during December, January and February alone. Electricity generated by nuclear plants is not included in the fuel adjustment charge. However, it now takes up to 12 years to get a nuclear plant built and licensed for operation and legislation is required to help streamline the licensing process.

Q. Why doesn't the electric company use the money they spend on advertising to reduce my bill?

A. The total annual cost of all newspaper, radio, television and other advertising amounts to about 60¢ per customer or about 5¢ a month. We believe it essential to keep our customers informed of the latest developments in the energy crises and to bring you up to date on our continuing efforts to provide reliable service. Since May of 1972 none of our advertising has been used to promote the increased usage of electricity.

Q. Have electric company profits gone up as a result of the energy crisis?

A. No. To the contrary, our System earnings for the twelve months through April, 1974 came to $1.94 per share compared with $2.59 per share a year ago. Our first four months earnings for 1974 were 67¢ per share compared with $1.08 per share a year ago.

BEAUTY & WIG SALON
40 Main St. - 475-7072

"I thought camp would be boring, but I like it!" Anita Zlatev of Pioneer Circle in Andover reported her feelings after a week at Camp Merrymeeting on Pomp's Pond.

Camp Merrymeeting, a day camp run by the Merrimack River Girl Scout Council, is the summer home away from home for 22 Andover Girls these two weeks, ending July 12. In all, Merrymeeting has 128 campers this session, 23 Program Aides (Senior Scouts who help the staff instructors teach skills), and 26 staff members.

Members of the "Woodshole" unit of Junior Scout age (grades 4-6), interviewed at the waterfront, said that what they like most about camp is "learning to whittle, playing a lot of games and singing a lot of songs, swimming, archery, and crafts" - in short, everything!

"I like camp," said Gina Comparato of Fulton Road. "At home you get bored, but here there's always something to do." "They keep us busy" agreed Valerie Barron of Linwood Street.

Gina is looking forward to Tuesday's cookout and overnight. It's the first time for almost all of the Woodshole unit, although one or two of the girls have had backyard camping. Dottie Kearns, Pleasant Street, can hardly wait. "Camp really is fun," she said, and hurried off to join her unit to work on earning the "Games" badge.

A group of Program Aides assisting on the waterfront came over to see what the commotion was, prompting such unsolicited testimonials from the campers as "The swimming teachers are nice," "The Program Aides are friendly - they sing on the bus!" These girls, too, seem to be enjoying camp. The only hardship they've encountered, they say, is in one of the units overlooking the waterfront. Evidently some pranksters from town went through on the July 4th holiday - now the girls have to climb trees to get paper towels!"

Over in the "Birdsnest" and "Pinegrove" units Brownie-age girls were preparing their first cookout. The "Birdsnest" Marketers and Cooks had planned a "campfire stew" while "Pinegrove" elected to try "Pigs in a Blanket". One of the cooks had an interesting solution to the problem of a meal whose ingredients do not please everyone. "I don't like the onions (in the stew), so I just put them in my mouth and don't chew." Another girl proudly showed me the bumpy "Bumps on a Log" (raisins on peanut butter and celery) - "because some of us don't like raisins."

Andover's Debbie Flieder, Sheila Henderson and Katie Morrissey were part of "Birdsnest's" cookout crew. Lori Chateaufort, Jacquie Holmes, Elisa Kahan, and Christie McAllister were with "Pinegrove." Both units agreed the food was "Great" (it was).

So proud of their efforts was one camper that she exuded the confidence that "Brownies Can do everything!"

She may be right. The 19 girls of "Birdsnest", for example, were divided into four patrols with the following divisions of duty. Fire Builders, who cut and stack the wood, then lay and tend the fire; Marketers and Cooks, whose duties include planning the food and equipment lists, preparing the food, and repacking the unused portions; Hostesses, who choose the eating area, lead grace, and scrape after the meal ("Ick", said one of this crew); and Clean Ups, who do the dishes and make sure the eating area is left in better condition than it was found in. Everybody earns her meal, so after grace is said they dig right in!

All the campers shared the feeling that camp is "lots of fun." "My mother likes it, too," confided Anita Zlatev with a big grin, "because I'm not around to bug her!"

Vacation Ideas At Library

If you happened to be watching television (Channel 7) at 9 a.m. on Sunday, July 7, you would have tuned in to Andover's own Children's Librarian, Jan Johnson, demonstrating her ideas for entertaining Andover's younger set during the long summer vacation. A member of the original committee of the Eastern Massachusetts Regional Library System's Summer Program Materials Committee, Jan was responsible for helping to select a major summer theme for the libraries in the region and then to suggest programs that tied in to the theme.

In her own library, Jan still has not stopped planning and because of her and her staff's energies no child has any reason to complain of boredom this summer. Here are just a few of the many free activities that are available just down the street at Elm Square - a drop-in storyhour on Wednesday mornings for preschoolers, a story-writing contest for fourth through sixth graders, a Tall Tales Troup for first through third graders and a Secret-Book-of-the-Month contest for everyone. (Pick up a "Summer Scene" program at the Children's Room for all the details.)

Those of you who plan to spend any part of the summer at the beach can also participate in a library event. Jan is awarding prizes to the best beachcombing treasures in all sorts of categories. You must bring your entry to the library by Aug 21 to be eligible for the judging.

If you want to be professional in your beachcombing efforts, the library suggests a new book, Exploring New England Shores by John F. Waters. This is an adult book but it is written simple enough so that the whole family can enjoy it. Mr. Waters explains everything you want to know about beaches, from their history and geology to the presence (true or false) of sea monsters. There are several chapters on the art of beachcombing that explain not only what to look for, but also how to preserve your new-found treasures. Black-and-white photographs will help you identify your finds and a chapter on crafts suggests gifts to make. Mr. Waters intersperses his writing with amusing anecdotes from his own childhood, offers old family recipes for seafood lovers and explains how to set up salt-water aquariums for those who want to bring the beach into their own home.

If you are planning a vacation to the beach, why not make it a learning experience? Come browse through this and other similar books and learn what to look for when you go.

Summer Pops At Hammond

The Hammond Castle will present another evening of Summer Organ Pops on Saturday evening, July 13 at 8:30 p.m., when Kenneth Wilson, popular organist, will begin his program with a Schubert Fantasy including Schubert's Marche Militaire, Moment Musical, Serenade and A Theme from the Unfinished Symphony. Also included in Mr. Wilson's program will be Ebb Tide by Robert Maxwell and La Danza by Rossini.

After intermission, Mr. Wilson will play the Windsor Melody by Noel Gay; Forbidden Harmony by Puccini from the opera, Tosca; and the March of the Conquistadores by Alfred Newman.

The Tax Structure

Several years ago when the town's Industrial Development Commission was seeking town meeting approval of rezoning of sections of land, there was considerable talk of achieving an equitable balance in the community among the residential, industrial and commercial taxpayers.

Those who sought approval of rezoning of land in Lowell Junction and in West Andover, noted that the residential taxpayer would probably always bear the burden of Andover's municipal expenses, but that some relief should be forthcoming from the entrance of new industrial plants in the town.

That these forecasts and goals of the industrial development people and planners of the past have come true, is evidenced by the breakdown by classification of taxpayers as produced by the assessors this past week.

The residential classification is still the town's largest contributor to municipal obligations, bearing 75 per cent of the burden.

The industrial classification, however, continues to inch forward as a result of decisions made at town meetings, both several years past and in more recent sessions.

Industry now carries 14 per cent of the town's tax base, with a valuation of $31,724,500. The commercial or business leg of the town's tax base represents 11 per cent.

The industrial base showed a slight increase in the past year, due, no doubt, to continued development by smaller plants in the Lowell Junction area.

The Raytheon Co., which has been Andover's top taxpayer for several years, maintains that distinction again this year, with its $329,219 tax bill. The firm surrendered that position only one year in the several it has been a corporate resident of Andover.

It was during the construction of its new plant in West Andover that Raytheon failed to make the top position, with the Gillette Co. taking the number one position.

Gillette remains the number two taxpayer in town, a rank it has held since opening its facility in the late 60's.

It is interesting to note that Shetland Properties, which is the owner of the former Shawsheen Mills is the fourth highest taxpayer in Andover. For many years it was Andover's leader as a part of the American Woolen Company, then the Raytheon plant. As a location for several smaller firms now, it remains a vital part of the town's economy.

New members among the top ten are the Broadway-Smith firm, off Dascomb Road and the Franklin Trust, the latter the listed owner of the former Shattuck property in West Andover where Hewlett-Packard is scheduled to build a new facility. The land is valued at $1,846,100 and nets a tax bill of $47,998.60.

From these figures it is apparent that the residential taxpayer, who carries the brunt of the town's expenses, receives some relief from industrial neighbors and hopefully can look forward to continued development in the years ahead to temper somewhat the costs of a growing community.

Well Done

Hats off to the committee which planned and produced another fine Fourth of July program for Andover this year.

It is not an easy task to put together a program to include something of interest to all, but the committee in charge provided numerous events and activities at reasonable prices with the family in mind.

That it was successful was attested by the huge crowd which gathered during the afternoon and evening hours and was treated to a brilliant fireworks display at the end.

For the most part the committee, headed by James McLeod, as chairman, is the same as the one which initiated that annual holiday program five years ago.

Through their annual efforts, they have worked out some early minor problems and have now come up with an enjoyable event, which the townspeople can look forward to annually.

Our congratulations to them on another job well done.

Our Loss

We think we speak in an almost unanimous voice when we note with sadness the departure of Anthony E. Mangifesti from Andover's school food services program.

Mr. Mangifesti, as personable a man as one would wish to meet, has directed Andover's program for the past five years.

In this past year he introduced a program for the town's senior citizens and also conducted a special program to finance bus transportation for the elderly during the winter months.

Feeding the thousands of school children daily and attempting to keep them happy is at best, a difficult job, but Andover's food service director, appeared to have more than met that goal.

While his departure represents the loss of a valuable person to Andover's school system, one can hardly deny the man his just due in obtaining the fulfillment of a personal goal, namely his desire to deal simultaneously with food service and teaching which he will accomplish at the Lowell Regional Vocational School.

We wish him well in his new endeavors.

Off The Top Of The Desk

A special excursion train to Lake Winnepesaukee, N.H., will leave Boston's North Station at 8 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 17, for a one-day "mini-vacation." It will feature a three-hour cruise on the M.V. Mount Washington.

The train itself will have a complete snack bar, souvenir car, and entertainment car. Special rates for children under 12; those under five go free. Further details are available from M.V.R.S., P.O. Box 32, Mattapan, Mass. 02126.

Andover will be receiving a total of $24,213 to modernize state-subsidized housing, according to the State Department of Community Affairs.

A total of $3.8 million is being doled out to 63 Massachusetts communities, as part of an ongoing program to "improve livability." The Andover money has been divided into two sums: $16,187 for elderly housing and $8,026 for family housing.

Nearby towns also receiving funds are Billerica, $16,035 for elderly; Haverhill, $55,782 for elderly; Lawrence, $90,581 for family housing; Lowell, $14,514 for elderly and $68,177 for family; Methuen, $5,341 for family; Reading, $22,531 for elderly.

The tools of the leatherworker have not changed in hundreds of years. Leather strippers and shears, knives for carving directly into the leather and stamps that impress a design with the aid of a heavy mallet, punches for making holes, and of course needle and thread for sewing - all were, and are, stock in trade of the leather craftsman.

In the James Marden House at Strawberry Banke, Portsmouth, N.H., "Sunrise Leather" has opened under the partnership of Rob Neumer and Dan Dielsi, two recent graduates of the University of New Hampshire. The shop is one of seven licensed to independent craftsmen on the grounds of the historical preservation institution, open to the public seven days a week from May 1 through October 31.

Both Neumer and Dielsi got started in leather when, as ex-football players, they found they had some time on their hands. After getting some basic instruction they began turning out their own creations, and decided to go into business together for the summer. They hope it will be a lasting partnership.

"It smells so good," is a remark visitors often make. The shop is redolent with the smell of leather fresh from the tannery. Large "shoulders" are draped on a wooden bar ready for use. The elaborate tanning process, in which animal hides are dipped into a tanning solution and then stretched and colored, is left to the professional tanners. Leather can be bought in different weights, from very heavy for making soles of sandals, to thin and supple suede.

Traditional items that would have been available to a shopper in colonial times are still popular today, such as tooled belts and pocketbooks, belt pouches, and wallets, hats, vests, leather trinket boxes, and wineskin pouches.

The shop also features some original designs by Neumer and Dielsi, such as the "gourd bag" - a large leather bag in the shape of a water gourd, and "feeder bags" adapted from the shape of a horse feeder bag into a highly original shoulder bag with a tooled bottom. There is also a leather wine rack to hang on the wall.

Short workshops in writing, effective speaking, the changing role of women in society and personal finance will be offered in July and August by Northeastern University's Center of Continuing Education.

The workshops will be offered in morning or evening sessions at the university's conference center, Henderson House, Weston. Morning participants will get together for lunch following their last session, and evening participants will conclude with dinner.

Two two-day workshops will be offered in "Effective Writing Skills," July 29 and 31 and Aug. 5 and 7, both from 6 to 8:30 p.m. The course covers non-fiction writing techniques, marketing techniques and offers supervised experience with a practicing professional.

"Techniques of Effective Speaking" will be offered Monday and Wednesday evenings, Aug. 12 and 14 and Aug. 19 and 21, from 6 to 8:30 p.m. Emphasis will be on developing skills in organizing thoughts, delivery, audience analysis and vocal techniques.

"The Psychology of Being a Woman" will be held Aug. 14 and 16 from 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago - July, 1899

The young men who committed vandalism at the Gray property on Central Street, the night before the Fourth, have admitted to their guilt and are working to make the payment of $20 for repairs.

Congressman Knox is in receipt of a package of seeds from the Agriculture department for late sowing and has left them at Chase's store for distribution.

A new florists shop will open next week in the Musgrove Building. P.R. Burt of Lowell will take the shop formerly occupied by Miss Abbott, the milliner.

George L. Burnham of the Town Farm, delivered to market this week a healthy load of potatoes at the place. It is believed to be the earliest crop in recent history.

The front of the Frye Village Hall is getting a fresh coat of paint this week.

50 Years Ago - July, 1924

Postmaster Angus has announced the summer schedule for the post office, which calls for only one delivery on Saturdays and the windows to be closed at noon, although one carrier will be on duty from 4:30 to 5 p.m. for special mail.

Dr. Charles E. Abbott, a representative to the General Court has been assigned to the recess commission to study midwifery and the registration of nurses.

F. Homer Foster and John Smiley of Ballardvale have granted use of their property adjacent to Pumps Pond and the area will be used for a lunch room.

A band concert will be provided weekly in the park through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Board of Public Works says it will have swings installed and the sand boxes filled by July 15.

25 Years Ago - July, 1949

305 residents of Ballardvale have petitioned the selectmen in protest to the B. and M. dropping the gate tender at the Andover Street crossing. Automatic gates will be installed.

Rep. J. Everett Collins has asked all Boosters Club members to assist in the painting of the bleachers at the playstead.

The board of Public Works has awarded a contract to the Rensselaer Pipe and Valve Co., to provide hydrants for the town at a cost of $111.09 per unit.

Lewis and Scott of Andover were the low bidders on the construction of the sewer line on Morton Street for the Veterans Housing project at $2,339.09.

A flaming truck which pulled into the Elm Street service station Monday morning brought fire fighters to the scene on the double.

10 Years Ago - July, 1964

Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien sets aside the law books for a cruise across the Atlantic in his boat.

The selectmen have decided to make a personal tour of gravel pits in town.

New Town Manager Richard J. Bowen visited town this week and says foreman and supervisors are the backbone of the town machinery.

The school committee approved construction of a 1,200 pupil high school. Supt. of Schools Edward I. Erickson and Committeeman William A. Doherty feel it is too small.

The summer school enrollment is 250.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

As a qualified candidate for appointment to the Andover Police Department, I am very concerned not only for myself and other qualified applicants but also for the residents of the town. For some reason the list received from Civil Service does not contain the names of five qualified residents that I know of and possibly more. As interviews are being held not one Andover resident is being considered. This is very disturbing considering the court decision to uphold home rule. On June 26, 1974 Superior Court Judge Francis J. Good made the decision which set up six categories for hiring under home rule. Civil service was to certify applicants as follows: 1. Disabled veterans who are local residents; 2. Veterans who are local residents; 3. non-veterans who are local residents; 4. Disabled veterans who are non-local residents; 5. veterans who are non-residents; 6. non-veterans, non-resident.

Why then does the list for Andover contain all non-residents?

I have talked to the town manager and his assistant, and both seem very concerned. They have been forced in the past few years to hire non-resident officers. These men have done an excellent job for the town, but now Andover residents are available and qualified and should be considered first under home rule. It is very disturbing for me to read in the Lawrence Eagle Tribune that Methuen has hired 11 permanent patrolmen and four reserves under home rule. Lawrence and North Reading have also hired local residents to fill openings. Again, why does Andover's list contain all non-residents?

In calling Civil Service I have been informed that the town did not apply for preferential hiring. Why??? No one seems to know. In talking to different residents I have found they are also concerned. The general feeling seems to be that they would like to see local people patrolling the streets. They would feel a more personal contact with a man they might know.

Would it not benefit the town if local residents were considered first for all job openings that fall under Civil Service; such as Police, Fire Dept., D.P.W., etc. I hope the Town of Andover will take definite steps to correct this situation.

Let's Talk Real Estate

with Ethel
Joyce

The "real" in real estate is a literal truth. The value in buildings and land does not disappear over night or melt into a disaster like other investments often do. Real property rides the waves of inflation and stays on top. Unlike the people who are "still waiting for the right time", those who bought homes in the past, now have the comforting security of principal savings and price appreciation. When all else seems to evaporate, this is a nest egg you can hold onto.

He is survived by three daughters, Rita, wife of George DeRoche, with whom he lived in North Andover, Philma, wife of Michael Kamieniecki of Nashua, N.H., Agnes, wife of Robert Busick of Elyria, Ohio; one son, John of Lawrence; five grandchildren; 7 great grandchildren.

A funeral Mass was offered Friday at 9 a.m. at St. Michael's Church, North Andover. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Hudson, N.H.

PHILIP H. LEE, Sr.

Philip H. Lee, Sr., 68, 65 Third St., North Andover, died Tuesday, July 2, at the Stevens Hall Nursing Home, North Andover, after a long illness.

Born in Circleville, Penn., Sept. 12, 1905, he retired in 1970 after working 35 years with the Talon Corp. of Meadville, Penn. He has lived with his son in North Andover since his retirement.

He attended the Irwin First Methodist Church of Irwin, Penn. and was a graduate of Allegheny College.

He is survived by one son, Philip H. Lee, Jr., a professor at Merrimack College, of North Andover; three sisters, Mary Belle, wife of Ivan Apple, Mrs. Minnie Davis, Miss Ruth Lee, and one brother, John L., all of Irwin, Penn. and five grandsons.

The funeral was Friday at the William Snyder Funeral Home, 521 Main St., Irwin, Penn., and burial was in Irwin Union Cemetery, Irwin, Penn.

DAVID T. LYNCH

A funeral Mass was offered Monday at 10 a.m. in St. Michael's Church, North Andover, for David T. Lynch, who was killed early Saturday in a car crash on Route 495 in Haverhill.

The 20-year-old son of Mrs. Claire Lynch and the late Joseph Lynch, a teacher at North Andover high school, died of a fractured neck and a crushed chest when his car plunged down a banking. He was found about 1 a.m. Saturday by State Trooper

D.C. Peterson, who noticed smoke rising from the banking.

He had completed his second year at Upsala College, East Orange, N.J. He had entered the school on a football scholarship after a successful and outstanding athletic career at North Andover High.

During the summers he was employed at Glennie's Dairy in North Andover and this summer was working on the beach route for the firm.

Born in Methuen, Feb. 15, 1954, Lynch attended St. Michael's Church and was educated in North Andover public schools.

Besides his mother, he is survived by three sisters, Patricia, wife of Robert Zieba of Lawrence, Sheila Lynch, a sophomore at Fitchburg State College, and Katherine Lynch, a sixth grader in the North Andover Middle School; two brothers, Joseph Lynch, a senior at Holy Cross College and Steven Lynch, a sophomore at North Andover High School; his maternal grandparents, Andrew and Helen VanDoorne of Lawrence; his paternal grandfather, John Lynch of Lawrence; and several aunts and uncles.

EDMUND F. SULLIVAN

Atty. Edmund F. Sullivan, 54, 8 Princeton Ave., Andover, died Thursday, July 4, at Lawrence General Hospital after a brief illness.

Born in Haverhill, Dec. 23, 1919, he graduated from Haverhill High School and Suffolk University Law School. He was a World War II veteran, serving in the U.S. Army.

He is survived by his wife, Liselotte (Reymann) Sullivan; his mother, Jeannette (Lyons) Sullivan; and one sister, Miss H. Jane Sullivan, both of Haverhill.

A funeral Mass was offered Monday at 9 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church in Bradford. Burial was in West Parish Cemetery, Andover.

ERNEST H. GAUNT

Ernest H. Gaunt, 89, of Andover, founder and director of the Andover Consumers Cooperative died Friday in Framingham after a long illness.

Born in Worcester, he was a graduate of Methuen High and of Amherst College.

He was a statistician at the Babson Institute, president and executive manager of the National Trade Association of Manufacturers in New England, vice president of the Barsodi and Analytical Bureau, a member of John Hancock Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Methuen, and director of the National Federation of Independent Businesses.

He was the widower of Helen S. (Spring).

He is survived by his wife, Mary E. (Mead) Gaunt; three sons, Gordon M. of East Longmeadow, David N. of Manchester, and Charles S. of Andover; four grandchildren; one great grandchild; and several nieces and nephews.

A funeral service was held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Edward B. Douglas Funeral Home, 251 Broadway, Methuen. Cremation was at Lynnwood Cemetery, Haverhill.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Ernest H. Gaunt Memorial Fund of Christ Church, Andover.

EMILY NEWSHOLME

Miss Emily Newsholme, 88, formerly of 350 North Main St., Andover, died Sunday at the Hughes Nursing Home, Andover, following a long illness.

Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 27, 1885, she was employed prior to her retirement by the Emmons Loom Harness Co., Lawrence, and later by the Bay State Merchants National Bank. She was a member of the First Calvary Baptist Church, Lawrence.

There were graveside services Tuesday at 2 p.m. in Elmwood Cemetery, Methuen. Arrangements were handled by Frederick E. Allen and Son, Lawrence.

LOUIS H. KELLY

Mr. Louis H. Kelly of St. Petersburg, formerly of North Andover and Saugus, died July 7.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the R. George Caron Funeral Home, North Andover, with the Rev. Schumm officiating.

Burial was in Ridgewood Cemetery.

Mr. Kelly was the husband of Leona (Fieldhouse) Kelly.

THE ICE HOUSE FIVE PLUS TWO will set a lively pace of dixieland favorites and ragtime rhythms Monday at the Prudential Center's Summerscene Band Concert in Boston. The group, formed more than 10 years ago in a converted ice house in Maine, features, from left, Courtney Crandall of Winchester, Bob Aiken of Essex, Dave Nivan of Cotuit, Stan Vincent of Needham, Sam Rogers of Andover and Mike Horn of Lincoln. The 7 p.m. rain-or-shine concert is free to the public.

Merri-Tones To Rehearse

The Merri-Tones, Merrimack Valley Chapter of Sweet

Adelines, Inc., now forming, will be holding their regular rehearsals during the summer months. The all-women chorus, under the direction of Carl D'Angio of Reading, meets every Thursday evening at 8 p.m. at the St.

Williams School, Rte. 38 (Main St.), in Tewksbury.

New additions to the group are always welcome. Members now hail from Andover, Billerica, Chelmsford, Lawrence, Lowell, North Reading, Tewksbury and Pelham, N.H.

Keaton Films At Museum

Buster Keaton, one of the greatest clowns of the silent film era, will appear on the screen at the Museum of Fine Arts through Aug. 27. This free summer series, Silents in the Court!, will be presented Tuesday evenings at sundown in the Sculpture Courtyard.

The recent revival of Keaton's masterpieces reflects a soaring popularity which may outshine that of his only major rival, Charlie Chaplin. This series is highlighted by ten of the twelve feature films produced, directed, and acted by Keaton between 1923 and 1930.

Renowned for his straightfaced composure, Keaton faces an unpredictable world of mushrooming catastrophes in his films. He transforms his childhood vaudeville routines into ingenious slapstick comedy. With an ever-puzzled deadpan, the versatile Keaton performs graceful leaps over waterfalls and manages hair-raising escapes from avalanches, tornadoes, cannibals, stranded ocean liners, and driverless motorcycles - all to win his girl in the end.

Keaton was a brilliant comic actor, a great modern film director, and a superhuman stunt man who rarely used a double. His hilarious antics take us up and down the ladder of laughter, from smile to belly-laugh and back again.

This film series is supported by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

The schedule for the Keaton Silents in the Court! series is as follows:

July 2, Our Hospitality (1923) with Natalie Talmadge, Joe Roberts, Joe Keaton.

July 9, The Pale Face (1921) and Sherlock, Jr. (1924) with Kathryn McGuire, Joe Keaton, Ward Crane.

July 16, The Navigator (1924) with Kathryn McGuire, Frederick Vroom, Noble Johnson.

July 23, Seven Chances (1925) with Ray Barnes, Snitz Edwards, Ruth Dwyer.

July 30, Go West (1925) with Kathleen Myers, Howard Truesdale, Brown Eyes.

Hassman In Concert In Methuen

Mr. Carrol Hassman, organist, will play the eighth summer program at the Methuen Memorial Music Hall on July 17th at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Hassman is Organist and Choirmaster at the Newton Highlands Congregational Church, Organist at Temple Beth Shalom in Needham, and a doctoral teaching fellow in music theory at Boston University. He received his Bachelor of Music degree at Wichita State University and his Master of Music degree from Boston University. He is also an Associate of the American Guild of Organists. A student of Jack Fisher and George Faxon, Mr. Hassman has played numerous recitals in the Boston area. This is his third Methuen recital.

His program features best known French composers of organ literature. Troisième Symphonie, Op. 28 (Allegro maestoso, Cantilene, Intermezzo, Adagio, Final) - Louis Vierne; Choral No. 2 in B. minor - Cesar Franck; Variations sur un thème de Clement Jannequin (Affettuoso, Maggiore, Fugato - pio vivo - Grave) - Jehan Alain; Deuxième Fantaisie - Jehan Alain; Prelude and Fugue in B Major, Op. 7 - Marcel Dupre.

The following Wednesday on July 24th, Jean Clay Radice, organist and choir-master at Grace Congregational Church in Framingham will perform at the Hall.

Comedy At Salem Playhouse

The parlormaid was neither upstairs or downstairs but she did hear "A Shot In The Dark." The hilarious comedy will be presented at the popular air-conditioned Town & Country Playhouse of Salem, N.H. through Sunday, July 14. Starring a professional New York cast of performers, the famous play by Marcel Achard which was adapted from the original French by Harry Kurnitz was a resounding hit on Broadway as well as an outstanding Hollywood success.

"A Shot In The Dark" will be presented nightly Wednesday through Saturday at 8:15 p.m., Sunday at 7 p.m. with a Thursday matinee at 2 p.m. The air-conditioned Town and Country Playhouse is easily reached at exit 1 of Interstate Route 93 opposite Rockingham Park with plenty of free parking. The theatre is housed in the new multi-million dollar High School in Salem. Telephone reservations are accepted with special reduced admission available to senior citizens, students and children. Special money saving group discounts are also available church, schools, organizations and other similar groups for fund raising.

See The Audi 100 LS at Park-Hegarty Porsche Audi

Trying to second-guess the gasoline situation could drive most luxury car owners to distraction. Or to an economy car. But not an Audi owner. The Audi 100 LS gets about 24 miles to the gallon, virtually the same as a Volkswagen. See it and drive it at Park-Hegarty Porsche Audi, Inc., 222 Lowell Street in Lawrence.

For comfort, the Audi's interior rivals the Mercedes 280 in luxury. It has just about the same headroom and legroom as a Rolls Royce Silver Shadow. And more trunk space, actually, than a Continental Mark IV.

And for performance? There's front wheel drive like a Cadillac Eldorado; an independent front suspension system like an Aston Martin; an ignition system like a Porsche; and rack and pinion steering like a Ferrari.

That's a lot of cars for the money. But then, that's an Audi, a rational alternative to low mileage luxury cars. The Audi is a lot of cars for a lot of different people. It is a sedan that driving enthusiasts can take pleasure in driving. It is a car for daily runs to school, etc., without big gasoline bills. It is a car for traveling, for commuting, for work and for pleasure. And the Audi has something very important in common with that old standby Volkswagen - Service!

Be sure to see the handsome new Audi 100 LS, or any of the full line of Audi and Porsche automobiles. Enjoy a test-drive any time at Park-Hegarty Porsche Audi, Inc., 222 Lowell Street in Lawrence. For further information, call Harry Dooley, Sales Manager, at 686-9743. Showrooms open Monday through Friday, 8:30 - 9; Saturdays 8:30 - 4.

We gift wrap your home with lots of ribbon... and no red tape.

We've got the know-how...plus.

Get out the ribbon and forget the red tape. We can make selling a home easier than most people would believe, because we know how to show it ... to buyers ... not "lookers".

Our lookers are buyers because they've done their browsing with our Homes For Living magazine. They've already seen your home, pictured clearly on a page of our monthly magazine. They know what features it has to offer, and they know your price. It's all right there in print.

And we find our buyers in places you wouldn't think to look. Hundreds of our magazines are distributed locally. And copies are sent to our offices in all 50 states, so that out-of-town buyers, who are relocating here, can get a good look at your home before they arrive.

We show your home to interested "lookers" across the country. We bring you the "buyers" to wrap up the deal.

It's "ribbon" and not "red tape" when we sell a home ... because we've got the Know-how ... Plus!

department head.

Lane sought to have the censure overturned, and also claimed that the others had held secret meetings, including one at which his censure was voted.

The suit is now scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday in Suffolk Superior Court, Boston.

The matter had come to the Suffolk Court's attention last Friday via another issue. James Murphy of Salem, the school committee's new special counsel, asked the court to rule that statements made under oath by the four defendants in May could not be used as evidence in the upcoming hearing.

Carmine DiAdamo, Lane's attorney, included allegations of secret meetings in a substitute bill of complaint he filed June 12 with the court.

Academics

strong emphasis on rote and drill, friendly competition, deportment, teacher-directed instruction, teacher-class discussion, continuity of curriculum, letter-graded report cards, and self contained classrooms, without aides or volunteers.

Ahearn further said that parents of "Academics Plus" believe the fundamentals - including the ability to read, write and speak accurately, and as well as to know and understand history, and use reason and logic - must be achieved at the earliest possible grades to allow time for expansion "of these subjects and of others now considered as enrichment."

"We believe that the schools should reinforce parental teachings of citizenship, discipline, respect and personal responsibility... that they should report to parents accurately, and comprehensively, in writing.

He further added, "We feel that parents have the right to live their own lives secure in the knowledge that the public schools, to which they have entrusted their children's education, and for which they are paying through taxes, will do a satisfactory job of imparting that education without the direct involvement of the parent being needed as a 'watchdog' or as an 'assistant to the teacher.'"

Ahearn asks that parents wishing to participate in the organization contact him at 33 Wildrose Drive.

School Committee

mittee.

Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert questioned the legality of the policy last week, indicating that state law giving him the right to recommend administrative candidates also gives him the right to set up the appointment procedure.

Seifert said that he had successfully included parents in administrative appointments in the past, and asked where it had not been satisfactory.

Committeeman George Olesen said that "neighborhood participation" in the selection of school officials had not been very successful in other communities and Committeeman John G. Wragg added that he would be "reluctant to relinquish" the responsibility to appoint school personnel to parents.

Also approved last week was a policy to provide buses for elementary pupils who live a mile or more from school, and for secondary pupils living a mile and a half or more. The criteria to determine the need for student pick-up are, in order of decreasing importance, safety, quality of treatment and cost effectiveness. Students attending parochial schools are entitled to bus service on an "equitable and consistent" basis with service provided public school students.

Another policy provides school will be cancelled only "in cases of extreme weather or travel conditions," with parents deciding on stormy days schools are open whether to send their youngsters.

The policy booklet is also to be updated annually, at the second school committee meeting after town election.
